VOL. VII. NO. 134 — FRESNO, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 1894 — PRICE—5 CENTS

THE STRIKES ENDED

Work to Be Resumed Within a Week.

STORES PREPARING TO OPEN

Some of the Mine Owners Already Putting Men at Work.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., June 11.—Ever since the deputies left the field today merchants have been preparing to resume business. The Summit, the Ravin, Eclpse No. 1, and Independence Mining companies began putting men to work today, and tomorrow the Victor, Buena Vista, Anaconda, Zenobia and Anna Lee will open up, and within a week it is expected every mine in the district will be in operation.

THE STRIKE IN OHIO.

Differences Probably Compromised and Work Will be Resumed.

MIDVALE, O., June 11.—The miners have destroyed the railroad bridge. They fired the bridge when it was reported soldiers were coming.

COLUMBUS, June 11.—The fifth regiment has been ordered to Midvale, but it will probably not go as the miners and owners have compromised and work in the mines will commence next Monday.

COLUMBUS, June 11.—The sheriffs of Tuscarawas and Stark counties this afternoon made formal demand on Governor McKinley for troops to protect the property of the Cleveland, Lorraine and Cleveland railroad. The Fourteenth regiment was sent to Urichsville in Tuscarawas county, and eight companies were ordered to Massilon, in Stark county.

AFTER THE C. P.

The Government Should Control This Road.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Congressman Geary today argued in favor of the Government taking possession of the Central Pacific if it defaults in its payments. He said: "I do not know why we should put Coxey in jail for walking on the grass and let go another criminal who filches millions, because in his last moments with the people's money he erected a university." Geary said the Government should control this road first, all railroads afterwards.

Maguire said this is the opportunity to settle the whole railroad question. There is no reason why the Government should give up the chance of recovering $30,000,000 from the Stanford and Huntington properties because the Crocker and Hopkins estates have been distributed.

Maguire proposed that the Government should appoint a majority of the directors of the Central Pacific, who should institute suits to secure diverted lands.

A Deputy Sheriff Killed.

VACAVILLE, Cal., June 11.—Deputy Sheriff George L. Parker was shot and killed this afternoon by Joe Haile, justice of the peace. The men had not been friendly, and Haile today heard that Parker had applied a vile epithet to his wife and he started to hunt him. Meeting the deputy sheriff in the Central hotel, Haile opened fire. Four shots were discharged, two taking effect. Parker died in ten minutes. Haile surrendered to the authorities.

At the coroner's inquest it developed that Tichnor was holding Parker at the moment that Haile fired the fatal shot. Tichnor thought Parker was about to shoot and did not known that Haile had a gun. There had long been trouble between the two men.

Troubles of a Cattle King.

UKIAH, June 11.—George E. White, the Round Valley cattle king, whose sensational career for the past few years is well known, today swore out a warrent in this city for the arrest of Ben Woodman, who for years was his partner in the sheep raising business in the northern part of the country. White accuses Woodman of having held him up on the road to Round Valley yesterday, forcing him to sign a check in Woodman's favor to the amount of $25,000. White arrived here today and stopped payment at the local bank. Sheriff Johnson left for Round Valley this evening.

A Sale of Yearlings.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The closing out sale of the late Senator Hearst's stud occured today. Twenty-three yearlings were sold for a total of $7555, an average of $328 per head. The prize of the list was a chestnut filly, full sister to Armitage, which sold to Dan Burns for $1700. The filly is by Surinam, dam Imported Poloma. A bay filly by Surinam, imported Merrimac, was also purchased by Burns for $825.

Died After Inhaling Chloroform.

LOS GATOS, June 11.—Eugene Parsons, the fourteen-year-old son of Mrs. John Lydon, had three teeth pulled by dentist King after inhaling chloroform. He regained consciousness but at once relapsed into unconsciousness, death speedily ensued. The boy's stepfather, who is the most prominent property owner in town, attaches no blame to the dentist.

A Big Labor Conference.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The Press will say that Secretary-Treasurer John W. Haynes and Grand Worthy Foreman Bishop of the Knights of Labor left this city Saturday to attend a big labor conference in St. Louis. They carried with them a copy of a resolution calling upon members of all labor organizations to cease work until the miners strike is settled or until congress takes action to settle it.

An Old Offender.

REDDING, June 11.—Eddinger, who shot Jose at Lewiston yesterday, is known by the name of Gilmore. Letters found in his room here show that he has a wife and a grown son at Angel, Calaveras county. From the letters it appears that he got into trouble there and was afraid to return.

Breckinridge's Name Dropped.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Today the month expired which had been given W. C. P. Breckinridge to reply to the charges made by the Union League Club of this city, and no word having been received from him, his name was dropped from the honorary membership roll of the club.

PEOPLES' HOME BANK.

The Supreme Court Decides Against Judge Hebbard.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The supreme court has decided against Judge Hebbard in his method of controlling the winding up of affairs of the Peoples' Home Savings bank. It decided that the superior court has absolutely no power to issue an injunction and appoint a receiver, and under this decision John F. Sheehan, the present receiver, will have to leave the winding up of the bank's affairs to the directors, four of whom are awaiting trial on grand jury indictments, charged with embezzling funds of the bank intrusted to them. It also appears that the bank directors should not have been made parties to the suit as power is given the Attorney General to bring suit on behalf of the state to dissolve the corporation only and therefore the corporation is the only legitimate defendant in such action.

Destructive Earthquake.

MADRID, June 11.—An earthquake shook several districts of Andalusia today. In the towns of Granada and Almoria many houses were destroyed and several persons were killed.

A Thief Caught.

SONORA, Cal., June 11.—Walter Lasswell, employed at the Rawhide mine, has been arrested for stealing amalgam. Twenty-five pounds of amalgam was found in his trunk.

A MAD DOG

CREATES CONSTERNATION IN DALLAS, TEXAS.

Seven People Severely Mangled Before He Is Killed by the Police.

DALLAS, Tex., June 12.—Yesterday a mad dog ran amuck in the city. He killed two dogs, three cats, bit seven people, three of them probably fatally. A negro boy was literally torn to pieces. A lady named Mrs. Worden was attacked in her house and terribly mangled. Nick Powers was seized by the thigh while attempting to escape up a ladder and frightfully lacerated. Jennings Moore had great pieces of flesh torn from his arm and sides. Mrs. Mary Arthur, an invalid, lying on a cot in her home, was attacked, and her arms, legs and side torn so she will die. Policeman finally killed the brute.

A PRESIDENT DEPOSED.

A Coup 'd etat in Paraguay Which Ended Peacefully.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald's Buenos Ayres dispatch says: The coup 'd etat in Paraguay on Saturday ended peacefully. Not a shot was fired. Generals Escoboro, Caballero and Egus Guid, each of whom is a candidate for the presidency, entered into a conspiracy with the minister of war to overthrow President Gonzales. When the president, accompanied by the minister of the interior and chief of police, was entering congress in assumption, he was suddenly surrounded and arrested by armed men, who compelled him to resign his office. The latest advices say the deposed president has been put on board a steamer for this city. His ministers of justice and foreign affairs and the chief of police have been imprisoned.

The Wine Syndicate.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The suggestion recently made by the committee of wine men to put the entire wine output of the state into the hands of a syndicate has assumed definite shape, and the proposition will be put before the growers next Saturday. The wine growers of Sonoma will be asked to meet in the morning at Santa Rosa and at Healdsburg in the afternoon; Santa Clara growers will assemble at San Jose; Alameda at Livermore; Napa at Napa; and those of San Joaquin and Fresno will meet in this city as most of them live here. The meeting of the Los Angeles growers will probably be held later. It is claimed by the leaders in the movement that it will double the value of the vineyards of the state in two years.

Brazilian Troops Defeated.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald's Buenos Ayres dispatch says: News has been received that the Brazilian government forces under Colonel Sampaco have been surprised and defeated by rebel forces under General Bina in Congurara. One hundred and fifty men were killed or wounded in the fight. Gederal Loreno, President of the rebel provisional government in the state of Santa Catharina, has been captured.

Serious Trouble Apprehended.

LONDON, June 11.—A dispatch to the Standard from Madrid says all Spanish officers and deplomats here who have recently been in Morocco apprehend serious trouble if the fanatical party headed by Muley Mahommed, eldest son of the late Sultan, should resist the proclamation of his brother as sultan. Four brothers of the late Sultan are also likely to prove a source of trouble.

The Champion Wins.

NEW YORK, June 11.—At the Academy of Music tonight Ernest Roeber, champion Greco-Roman wrestler of the world, defeated Duncan C. Ross. Roeber won three straight bouts. In the first catch-as-catch can Roeber threw Ross in ten and one-half minutes. He won the second Greco-Roman in five minutes, and third catch-as-catch can in four minutes.

Morton Will Accept.

NEW YORK, June 11.—News was received from London today by very close friends of ex-Vice President Levi P. Morton that should the convention name Mr. Morton for governor and his present good health continues he will not refuse to run.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Wheat—Quiet and strong; December, $1.09¾.

Barley—Quiet and strong; December, 98¾c.

Corn—$1.35.

Bran—$16 per ton.

Woman Suffrage Knocked Out.

TRENTON, N. J., June 11.—Chief Justice Beasley today decided that the legislature of New Jersey could not confer upon women the right to vote for any public officers. Under this decision women will be barred from voting for school trustees in future.

POLITICS IN KENTUCKY.

Owens and Settle Draw a Large Crowd.

LEXINGTON, June 11.—About 6,000 strangers were here today to hear W. L. Owens and Evan Settle, candidates for congress in opposition to Colonel Breckinridge. They spoke in the opera house to a crowd measured by the walls. Owens made several allusions to Breckinridge. He said he stood by every word uttered in his famous Paris speech, when he attacked Breckinridge bitterly. He said if anybody took offence at what he said he wanted that person to come to him like a man, and not sneak off behind that long-eared, long-haired, irresponsible, crazy brute, Charles C. Moore.

Moore published in his prohibition paper several columns last week against Owens, and this allusion is a reflection on Breckinridge, who is said by Owen's men to have furnished Moore with information. Settle and Owen spoke again tonight at the courthouse.

Warm Day in New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The heat and humidity have been excessive today. The mercury marked ninety degrees in the shade, the highest record for June 11th in the history of the weather bureau. There have been several prostrations. Two persons died in Brooklyn from the intense heat.

Squatters Homes Burned.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., June 11.—News has reached here that Sheriff McCapes of Dixon county, Nebraska, has burned the homes of squatters on an island in the Missouri river, opposite Vermillion, after first driving the settlers from their homes. The ownership of the island has been in dispute between the two states.

SCATTER THE OFFICES.

The Country Should Receive Some of the Nominations.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Permit us to say in reference to the officers to be nominated and elected in Fresno county, that general satisfaction seems to prevail among the country people in knowing that the offices are to be divided in a fair proportion between the city of Fresno and the outlying precincts. This is as it should be and will no doubt be manifested when the votes are counted in November.

In our weekly paper, the Fresno County Enterprise, published at Selma, under date of June 9th, we notice the following: "The Republican county convention meets next Saturday to make county nominations and transact such other business as may come before it." This cannot be true, and may prove very misleading to those not otherwise informed. The fact is said convention does not meet on Saturday at all, but does meet in Fresno on Wednesday, June 13, 1894, at 10 o'clock a.m., and meets on said day and date in accordance with a call and resolution adopted on May 19, 1894, at the city of Fresno, by the Republican county central committee.

Again we read in the Enterprise: "Selma has but one candidate in the field for county honors, and is certainly entitled to receive such recognition;" and then it goes on to state that Mr. Whitson is a candidate for treasurer. The above is also misleading as to there being but one candidate from Selma, when it is known positively that G. J. Nees is a candidate for county treasurer, and so announces himself in print today. This ought to satisfy Selma, especially when Sanger claims a right to be represented by William F. Hanke for county treasurer, and Reedley claims the same right for H. E. Barnum for auditor.

Thus would the offices be judiciously scattered south and east of Fresno, and no doubt be satisfactory to all.

DELEGATE.

Selma, June 11, 1894.

A FORMER FRESNOAN

Praises the Texan Gulf Counties—Plenty of Rain.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—"Once a Californian, always a Californian," and yet I cannot help contrasting the frequent droughts in Southern California, the weary, anxious watching, waiting for the rain that falleth not upon either the Christian or evil doer, with the abundance that blesses—yes, burdens the farmers of the Texas gulf coast counties.

Lavoca county, according to the statistician, never had a drought, and in face of what I have experienced here during the past three years, I am willing to believe it. How I wish a few of those train loads of sheep and cattle that are being sent from Porterville to Reno (as per your issue of May 25th), were shipped instead to our beautiful black sandy loam prairies, carpeted at all seasons of the year with more grass than can be eaten as at present stocked.

It is only of late that grass has been so abundant. The barbed wire keeps out "foreigners," and as we all own large tracts it is an easy matter to have more grass than cattle, where there are fences.

This region has all the characteristics of California, with an annual rainfall, evenly distributed through the growing seasons (for we have two), averaging 49 inches.

Your paper is a welcome visitor, and is always eagerly perused. If any of your readers desire any information pertaining to prices, climate, crops, etc., I will cheerfully answer,

E. W. KING.

Seclusion, Texas, June 5, 1894.

For Justice of the Peace.

G. C. Freman has announced himself as a candidate for justice of the peace, as appears by another column of this paper. Mr. Freman has been in Fresno for the last five years, engaged in the practice of law, and during that time has practiced in all the courts of this state. His experience as a lawyer makes him well qualified for the position to which he aspires, and his many friends feel that he should receive the nomination.

The Equal Suffrage society will meet in DeWitt hall Wednesday, June 13, at 3 p. m. All are invited.

A NEW RAILROAD.

Work May Soon Be Begun on the Fresno and Monterey Line.

From the San Francisco Call.

Colonel A. W. Jones, President of the Fresno and Monterey Railway Company, the proposed new line to run from Fresno towards the coast and ending at Monterey, spent several days in town last week looking after some business connected with the proposed road.

The company was incorporated some months ago, but so far no steps have been taken towards building, although it is understood that engineers have been out looking over the route which may be selected as the most likely.

The only difficulty in the route is in getting over the Coast Range, and what point will be selected for the cut is not yet determined as far as known. It is thought, though, that the only available point will be the Panoche Pass in San Benito county.

There has been considerable gossip indulged in among railroad men regarding the road and as to its practicability from a pecuniary standpoint.

In Fresno it is looked upon with favor, and as Colonel Jones has the reputation of being what is called a "rustler" in such matters, it is probable that work may soon be begun and the road pushed through. As to the capital interested, little has been said as yet, though it was stated by one of the Colonel's friends yesterday that he expected to soon to go to England to realize on some of the bonds which will be issued.

A RAISIN WAREHOUSE

BEING CONSTRUCTED BY FRANK BURLEIGH.

It Will Be a Handsome Brick Structure, and Fire Proof.

Frank J. Burleigh, the proprietor of Burleigh's warehouse, is having a raisin storage warehouse constructed immediately north of the grain warehouse, on the railroad reservation near Mono street. There has been a good deal of talk about building warehouses where raisins and fruit may be stored, but nothing practical has come of it. Mr. Burleigh came to the wise conclusion that the only way to have a warehouse of this kind was to build it, and that is what he is doing now.

He is so confident that a raisin storage warehouse will prove a profitable investment that he is putting up the best and safest that can be had for the money. As a pioneer in this new line, Mr. Burleigh deserves great credit for his enterprise, and it is to be hoped his expectations will be fully realized.

The warehouse will be 100 feet long and sixty wide and the walls will be entirely of brick, thirteen inches thick. The gables will also be of brick, nine inches thick. The roof will be of corrugated iron. Mr. Burleigh's intention is to make the building practically fireproof. It was his purpose at first to make the floor of the warehouse of bitumen, but he came to the conclusion that the place would be as safe without it.

It will be well ventilated, but on a plan different from most warehouses. Instead of having the ventilators of wood slats, or lattice work, they will consist of perforated sheet iron. This is another step in the direction of safety. It short, it will be a model warehouse with all the latest improvements, and its cost will probably be $7000.

Mr. Burleigh told a REPUBLICAN reporter that the building would be finished in thirty days. Its capacity will be about 100,000 fifty-pound boxes of raisins. He has decided to charge 3 cents per fifty-pound box for the season, or until the goods are sold, and 1½ cents for a twenty-pound box.

He also said he had been in communication with raisin and fruit buyers and was confident that his patrons would be able to dispose of their product at the warehouse, or receive advances from bankers on their warehouse receipts. Buyers would visit his warehouse to buy raisins and fruit—in short it would be a sort of an exchange where the grower could deal direct with the buyer. This plan will no doubt commend itself to the producers.

THE HIGH SCHOOL PARTY.

Given in Honor of the Class of '95 Last Night.

Armory hall never was the scene of a more pleasant or enjoyable gathering than it was at the reception given last night in honor of the graduating class. These annual reunions are always looked forward to with expectancy and pleasure. The alumni were well represented last night, although they have been widely scattered by their different callings.

Preceding the dancing, which was the feature of the evening, a short program was given. Addresses were made by the members of the different classes upon the occasion. George E. Church and Professor Heaton also made short addresses. The class history by Frank Ellis was well written and much enjoyed. After dancing a while all sat down to an elegantly appointed collation. One corner of the hall was enclosed by Japanese screens, behind which were the tables.

During the repast, Martin Madsen read the class prophecy which abounded in humorous hits, understood only in their little circle. The class will was also read and executed. Dancing was resumed and kept up till a late hour.

"The American Protectionist does not seek to evade the legitimate results of his theory. He starts with the proposition that whatever is manufactured at home gives work and wages to our own people, and that if the duty is even put so high as to prohibit the import of the foreign article, the competition of home producers will rapidly reduce the price to the consumer.—James G. Blaine.

Stanislaus Republicans have instructed their delegation for McDonald for governor and Bowers for congress. Bowers is a sure winner and the chances are very favorable for McDonald.

Some of the newspapers are jumping at the conclusion that Bill Dalton is dead because his wife says he is. This is corroborative evidence, of course, but it would not be at all surprising if William should turn up and prove an alibi by another wife.

The discovery has just been made that the telephones are "fairly alive" with microbes. They are evidently the very worst kind, too. It is enough to make a good man shudder to think of getting those microbes in his system which have been mixed up with telephone profanity for an indefinite period.

San Joaquin county has a hospital scandal, involving nearly everything from drunkenness to bribery. Fresno is rather unfortunate in regard to the conduct of some of her neighbors. The most virtuous county cannot keep her reputation unsullied when her associations are so compromising.

The Baptist Union of Great Britain has just passed a resolution declaring that there is too much lynching in the United States. That comes of shooting at long range. The resolution should have stated that the law against crime is not efficiently enforced in this country. If it were there would be very few cases of lynching.

The logic of the situation appears to be against the demands of the commonwealers. Before they get to Washington they will succeed in demonstrating that they can live pretty comfortably without work and that a good many of them do not want it. This is very discouraging to law makers who are asked to exceed their authority.

According to the rather discordant tenor of yesterday's dispatches Hoke Smith does not share in the Expositor's sympathy for Surveyor General Green's method of distributing the patronage of his office among the members of his family. It is certainly to be hoped that Hoke will not carry out his implied threat to delare the office vacant, for among all the Democrats in the state there are none entitled to a more liberal share of the pie than Mr. Green.

Fresno is putting up the money for a preliminary survey of that much talked of canal through this valley. This is the most businesslike action thus far taken to settle the transportation question for one of the most important sections of the state. Topics knows nothing of the practicability of the scheme nor what such a canal as is required will cost. Engineers have said that it can be made easy enough and that the cost will not be prohibitory. Whatever may be decided upon in this matter it is becoming evident that the people of this state are not so firm as they were in the belief that eastern capital is eternally suffering to get in here to back every interest proposed. We are getting almost ready to attempt to carry out some of our own propositions.—Tulare Register.

Fresno has finally settled down to the conclusion that she must help herself out of the disadvantages of a non-competitive railroad tariff. If the time, energy and money which have been wasted on various schemes from the outside had been invested in the canal it would already be conveying freight to a point of navigation on the San Joaquin, and not only Fresno but all neighboring localities would be realizing the benefits of cheaper transportation. If Fresno succeeds, as she surely will, in constructing the proposed canal, it is only a question of a few years' time when Tulare and Kern counties will follow her example and extend the canal system to the upper end of the valley.

What has become of that trimphant declaration made by the Call a few weeks ago that "the Republican party would do without bosses this year?" We observe that Dan Burns is running the machine in San Francisco, with the able assistance of Chris Buckley, a recent recruit from Hungary. Frank Rhoades has stuffed the Sacramento delegation into his vest pocket, and Jim Rea is in supreme control in Santa Clara. Hervey Lindley is trying to hold his grip in Los Angeles, and Billy Sesnon is making a bold effort to maintain supremacy in Fresno. The Republican party seems to have all the bosses this year.—Oakland Times.

This is a fair sample of the way in which the "triumphant" Democracy is starting in on the campaign in this state when the natural expectation would be that their whole time would be occupied in pointing out the benefits which had been secured to the people through the political avalanche of 1892. Their sole occupation so far is to sit upon their haunches like the coyote of the California poetess and howl, and howl, and howl—that the Republican party has "bosses." And what ground is there for the weird and monotonous music of their jawboning? That Crimmins and Kelley, the gin mill bosses, were routed in San Francisco, and that Dan Burns is enjoying the ephemeral distinction of having led the fight against them. In their own party in that city are local bosses contending for supremacy, and in due time one faction will be defeated and another will triumph, and the leader of the successful faction will then be the boss of the Democratic party of the state—according to Democratic logic. So far as Los Angeles and Fresno are concerned, the "machine" in the former place has been effectually smashed, and the bosses will have no more show with the delegation which Fresno will send to the state convention than the Populists will in the city in which the Times preaches the doctrines of Democracy. The truth of the matter is that the bosses are getting little comfort in any quarter this year, and the howl going up from the Democratic press is simply for the purpose of attracting attention away from the utterly demoralized condition of that party.

The Republican is in receipt of the following communication:

Editor Republican:—I notice that Democratic papers here and elsewhere are making the statement that J. W. Rea of Santa Clara, the railroad commissioner from this district, expects to get a renomination to the office which he has filled with such conspicuous fidelity to the railroad company, by the assistance of the Fresno delegation to the state convention. Is such the case? And if so, what does The Republican think about it? Many readers of your paper, who look to it as their only source of defense or of enlightenment in matters affecting transportation, would like to see an expression of opinion in your columns on this subject.

Republican Producer.

This paper has no means of knowing what J. W. Rea may or may not expect, but it feels perfect assurance in saying that if he expects a renomination through the assistance which he will get from the delegation from this county that he will find himself beautifully left. The people of this county have no use for J. W. Rea as a railroad commissioner, and we feel very positive that their wishes will be represented in that respect by the delegates which the Republican party will select to represent them at the state convention. The people have been for some time paying Mr. Rea a very liberal salary for taking care of the interests of the railroad company, and if he desires any further reward for his services they will expect him to look for it to those whom he has served. So far as The Republican is concerned, it is opposed to Mr. Rea, and this opposition extends to anybody who is in favor of him for the entirely sufficient reason that no legitimate or honest excuse can be found for supporting him. The supposition that Rea will get any support from Fresno county appears to be preposterons.

THE MEAN THING.

A Horrid Man Editor Criticises Lady Politicians.

From the Sacramento Bee.

To many, the most disagreeable sight at the recent state convention of the People's Party was the presence upon the floor as delegates of numbers of women. Their conspicuous position jarred upon the average spectator like the harsh notes of discordant music. Though some of the women perpetrated clever infringements on the dull monotony which the gatherings of this party seem to have patented, still the listeners wished these representatives of the fair sex had not been so publicly quick-witted in a cosmopolitan and promiscuous gathering of politicians, cranks, wild-eyed enthusiasts, myriad-idead zealots, and fanatic crusaders. Newspaper men are not usually prone to either sentimental or critical reflections upon a public assemblage which they are called upon to report. In this particular instance, however, their remarks were many and condemnatory. After one old lady had called the convention to its senses, as it was drifting into an ocean of slush concerning Thomas V. Cator, she was greeted with a chorus of shrieks, yells, cat-calls and cheers, in the midst of which a stentorian voice cried out: "By —— the old girl's about right."

The writer turned to the bright correspondent of a San Francisco journal, casually stating that the woman seemed to have more sense than most of the men who had spoken.

"Yes," was the answer, in a tone of half disgust, "she's smart enough, and all that, but I'm mighty glad she's not my mother."

That struck the keynote of the unpleasant feeling which the shrieking voices of these women delegates caused to the average spectator.

A SUMMER GOWN,

571—LINVILLE WAIST. Sizes, 34, 36, 38 and 40 Inches Bust Measure

A stylish and jaunty design, appropriate either for a fancy waist to be worn with different skirts, or combined with the "Eastbourne" overskirt and any style of gored skirt it completes a very pretty costume. The outer part of the waist is slightly full at the bottom over a fitted lining having all the usual seams. The yoke in the back is finished straight across at the bottom, and the front is cut to form three points; but back and front can be shaped alike if preferred. The lining should be fastened down the middle in the usual way, and the outer front fastened on the left shoulder and under the arm. A fancy yoke of jet or lace with a contrasting color for the lining is very effective. Any of the seasonable fabrics in wool or silk can be used for this waist, and it can be worn with any style of skirt.

A special illustration and full directions about the pattern will be found on the envelope in which it is enclosed.

574—Eastbourne Overskirt. Sizes medium and Large.

This charmingly graceful model is cut in circle shape and has a bias seam in the back; it can be draped over any gored skirt trimmed with little narrow ruffles or a facing of the material; but care must be taken to make this facing deep enough so the wind will not betray the unsightly sham. It is appropriate for all materials that drape gracefully, and the trimming can be chosen to correspond. Our illustration is of blue-gray crepon and silk, and the trimming is Venetian guipure underlaid with black satin. A special illustration and full directions about the pattern will be found on the envelope in which it is enclosed.

Republican Coupon Pattern Order,

Entitling the holder to One Demorest Pattern

Fill in below the number and size of the pattern you desire, and mail this coupon to Demorest's, 15 East 14th Street, New York, with four cents in stamps or pennies, to pay for mailing, handling, etc. Be sure to give your name and full address, and choose one of the sizes that is printed with each design.

Sandow and the Trocadero Vaudeville company will be the attraction at the Barton opera house Thursday night, June 14th. The following is from the Los Angeles Times:

"The new Los Angeles theater was filled last night; in fact it was a much larger crowd than usually congregates at a place of amusement on Sunday night. The announcement that Sandow, the strong man, would gives exhibitions of his prowess was the cause of the great gathering. Sandow demonstrated how easy it was for a strong man to play with a 300-pound dumb bell. He essayed some difficult and wonderful feats of strength on the Roman ladder. But the piece de resistance was the holding up of three horses on a board."

Manager Barton wishes to announce to the patrons that prices of admission will remain the same, notwithstanding the enormous expense in securing this great attraction. Seats are now on sale at the box office.

THE SUPERVISORS

PLODDING THROUGH AN UNEVENTFUL SESSION.

The Barton Estate's Claim Rejected—An Important West Side Road Proposed.

With the solitary exception of the breezy afternoon when the supervisors voted to reject the petition to repeal the Sunday closing ordinance, the present session has been the most uneventful for many months.

Yesterday morning there were a number of road petitions on file, and a busy day seemed in prospect, but Surveyor Hoxie was absent, and an adjournment was taken until 2 p.m. At that hour there was present a delegation from the Rancho Laguna de Tache section, and though Mr. Hoxie had not yet returned from his surveying trip, the board considered the case presented.

Reference to the county map will show that the Rancho Laguna de Tache section crosses the line of Murphy's slough, forming a broad diagonal belt nearly parallel to the Elkhorn grade. It is essentially a swamp country, and has very few roads. Communication with Fresno, Kingsburg, Kingston, Lemoore and Hanford has been devious and difficult.

The first of the roads planned in this district is to be six miles long and sixty feet wide, passable by wagons, and with the following limits: Commencing at the corner common to sections 3 and 4, township 17 south, range 20 east; thence east on section line to the section corners common to sections 3, 4, 9 and 10, township 17 south, range 21 east, to a connection with the county roads leading to Kingston, Fresno and other places.

This is one of several roads proposed or petitioned for in the Laguna de Tache district, and the difficulty seems to be the conflicting interests of local land owners.

The board has sent out viewers to report on the particular road under discussion, but their report aroused such a number of remonstrances that it was finally resolved yesterday to appoint Supervisors Foster and Sayre a committee to proceed over the line of road, interview the land owners, and ascertain what is justly due them.

Among the local residents interested in the matter who appeared before the Supervisors were Messrs. Lindsay Lewis, Louis Gibbons and Mr. Irving.

Pat Ryan, an inmate of the county hospital, suffering from pulmonary consumption, appeared before the board to ask for financial aid to enable him to go to Yuma, Arizona, where he thought his chances of recovery would be far better. He stated that he did not expect to leave the hospital alive if he remained here.

Mr. Sayre thought the applicant did not look to be a very sick man, and Chairman Letcher said a halt would have to be called on paying the expenses of sick persons out of the state. The applicant was told that nothing could be done for him at present.

W. B. Good of Selma presented himself before the board to call attention to the fact that Selma is an incorporated town, and that precincts one and two now extend beyond the corporate limits. Mr. Good was informed that the matter is now under the consideration of the District Attorney.

A diputed claim of $49.50, arising out of the county display at Los Angeles, came up for final settlement. Chairman Letcher explained that when the Los Angeles exhibition was set on foot, the supervisors appropriated the sum of $1500 for an exhibit and placed the latter in charge of William Harvey. The $1500 was expended, but the board was subsequently presented with a claim of $49.50 from the Barton Estate Company, limited, for wines unreturned. The claim was disallowed, and this drew the following protest from Colonel Trevelyan:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, Fresno, Cal.

Dear Sirs:—Some time ago I claimed on behalf of this estate for the sum of $49.50. You will remember that your appointed committee of citizens ordered some wine from us, on the distinct understanding that whatever was not returned would be paid for. The amount now reclaimed is $49.50. Your clerk verbally informed me that my previous application was disallowed. Now I consider this an extremely unfair decision and one likely to hurt all future endeavors to promote the welfare of Fresno products. Surely your board could allow your committee this sum, as an addition to that already paid. I consider that your board, if not legally, is honorably bound to pay the indebtedness incurred by your own appointed committee. I trust, therefore, you will kindly reconsider your previous decision. Yours faithfully,

BARTON ESTATE CO. LIMITED.
H. TREVELYAN, Manager.

The account showed debits (wire, etc., delivered) $183; credits $133.50; balance $49.50.

On motion of Sayre seconded by Butler, the bill was rejected.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

What Fresno Has Lost Because of Its Illiberality.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Through the apathy and indifference of our people we lost the terminus of the Moore & Smith flume, together with the mills and plant now being operated at Sanger. From a like cause we have lost the terminus of the Pine Ridge flume, together with the plant now being erected at Clovis. For want of energy and business activity we have lost our cannery. For want of a few thousand dollars we have lost the grape syrup and distillery plants, which were promised, and would have been established had the projectors met with the proper encouragement.

Had we secured the flumes, mills and factories we would have gained cheaper building material and fuel, and there would have been a large weekly pay roll for mechanics and laboring men. All this is lost to our city. The failure to operate the cannery deprives the producers of fruits and vegetables to this extent of a home market, and closes the doors against the number of laboring men, women and children to whom it would have furnished employment. The loss of the syrup and distillery plants present another heavy loss, especially to the vineyardists, as there will be this season raised within a radius of five miles from Fresno 15,000 to 20,000 tons of second-crop grapes, which could have been manufactured into syrup and brandy, thereby furnishing employment for a number of mechanics and day laborers, saying nothing about the amount of money paid out here for buildings and machinery.

This is a serious matter for our business men and property owners to contemplate. We have six banks in the city, one of which claims to have $130,000 on deposit. Allowing that the other banks each have $100,000 on deposits, this would show on hand $630,000 of idle capital—not owned by the banks, but held on deposit. The question arises, why could not a part of the capital be more profitably utilized in building up manufactories, which would increase our population, increase the general mercantile business and greatly improve the price and demand for real estate? Something of this kind must be inaugurated, otherwise our beautiful city will come to a standstill.

It is not within the policy or province of sound banking principles to engage, per se, in outside business; but it is the province and duty of good sound banking methods, when properly secured, to aid and encourage business men with ready money at a liberal rate of interest for the purpose of general development of the country, which can be made profitable to all parties interested. These are matters which call loudly for the earnest consideration of the business men of our city. Poor men can and will furnish the necessary mechanical and day labor, but they cannot furnish capital and raw material. INDEX.

THE GRAHAM FUNERAL.

One of the Largest That Has Ever Occurred Here.

The remains of Captain George A. Graham of Wawona Division, No. 1, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, were laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery Sunday with full Pythian honors. There were nearly 100 carriages in line from the city limits to the cemetery gates, and over 100 Knights took part in the procession through the city.

The procession started from the corner of Fresno and I streets at 1.45 p.m., led by the Park band and by Wawona Division of thirty-six uniformed Knights with reversed swords. On reaching the Advent church the Knights faced inwards in two lines, the hearse passing between, while the Knights saluted, uncovered and then brought their swords to the parry.

The church was crowded. A quartet sang suitable selections and George E. Church delivered an address on the immortality of the soul, with special reference to the deceased brother.

The procession marched by way of Mariposa street, keeping an almost mathematically perfect line. The erect bearing and regular step of the uniformed rank solicited the favorable comment of old soldiers. The band played the Petto Dolore on the long march to the city limits at Amador street in most impressive style.

The usual Pythian services were conducted at the grave under the auspices of the uniformed rank. The floral pieces were numerous, appropriate and beautiful.

The Athletic club sent a delegation to take part in the procession, and the employes of Kutner-Goldstein company attended in a body.

The pall bearers were Judge M. K. Harris and J. M. Collier of Vineland lodge, Sir Knights, A. Schultz and George Beall; and A. Levy and B. Mock of the Kutner-Goldstein company.

Didn't Charge for Sundays.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—I see it stated in your paper that the "grand jury put in bills for Sundays and a holiday." This statement is incorrect, so far as I am concerned. I sent my bill in for twenty-seven days of actual work and made no charge for Sundays or holiday, as the books of the supervisors will show. Respectfully yours,

J. W. REESE.

BRANDY IN BOND.

Proposal to Permit of It Being Bottled in the Warehouses.

A Washington dispatch says that the Senate Finance committee and the treasury department have under consideration a proposed amendment to the tariff bill, by which brandy may be bottled while in bond and shipped for export in bottles. This amendment is of great importance to all brandy distillers of this country. The internal revenue tax on brandy is remitted when the brandy is withdrawn from the warehouse for export, provided the same is kept in the original packages of twenty gallons or more. Goods are now only sent out in the original package, and consequently no exporter knows what sort of brand may be placed on his goods when they arrive abroad. By allowing the goods to be sent in bottles the work of bottling is done in this country and the individual brands are given some value.

COLLINS TALKS BACK.

THE MINISTER PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO MR. TUPPER,

And Incidentally Talks of Renegades Running for Office in Past Years.

"The Devil's Mistake" was the subject of the discourse preached by the Rev. J. H. Collins to a crowded congregation at the Congregational church on Sunday evening.

The preacher cited a number of scriptural instances on which he claimed that the enemy of mankind had made mistakes from the crucifixion of Christ to the persecution of the early Christians in Judea and Rome, and the burning of the martyrs at the stake in more recent times.

After dwelling for some time in an apparently listless way on historic cases of mistakes made by Satan the preacher suddenly warmed up as he got "nearer home."

He claimed that the triumph of the saloon keepers in the acquittal of Barnum would prove to be a case of the Devil's mistake: that the $1700 which the saloon keepers or the League of Freedom had raised would avail little in a fight which would last as long as he or Mr. Gillan remained here, and said Mr. Collins, "I am here to stay." The battle would be fought all over the county and it would not be always the case that the hireling of foreign saloon keepers would be able to get a picked jury to acquit.

The preacher charged that Barnum keeps a house of assignation and warned the mothers among his congregation to keep an eye on their daughters. He read a letter asking him to set a watch on Barnum's place to satisfy himself of its infamous character.

Then Mr. Collins spoke of the manner in which ministers of the gospel had been abused, besmeared and attacked in the court room during the trial of Barnum by Mr. Tupper. He said that if he had not felt that Mr. Tupper had been handicapped by physical infirmity, or if Tupper had been a 150 or even a 250-pound man, he would have tried to thrash the latter as he richly deserved.

The preacher went on to say that he is the son of a man who died on the battlefield for the preservation of this nation, and that his own orphanage was one of privation and sorrow. Was he to be insulted by the attorney of men, few of whose names are on the great register, few of whom are naturalized, few of whom are civilized, and many of whom carry their character on their faces?

He claimed that Fresno is no longer a frontier pioneer town. He believed in the assertion of an Oakland visitor, a civil engineer of note, who told him that within twenty years Fresno would have as large a population as Oakland.

Even now, Mr. Collins said, there are signs that Fresno is not now what it was two years ago. Men do not go after each other with shotguns on the street: men do not shoot each other in the opera house. He asked if the renegades who ran for office two years ago, the ruff-scruff of politics, could get elected now.

The reports spread abroad by those who attended the service caused quite a little buzz on the streets yesterday, and widely divergent opinions were expressed on the case of Collins versus Tupper, as argued in the justice court and from the pulpit.

COMPLAINTS FILED

Against Persons Who Violated the Sunday Closing Ordinance.

Four complaints were filed with the clerk of the Board of Supervisors yesterday by the District Attorney, charging that many saloon keepers with violating liquor ordinance No. 52 by keeping their saloons open and selling liquor on Sunday.

The complaints are against Paul Mayer, John Graupman, Hall & Larsen, and Paul Beuchel. The two first named complaints are sworn to by one L. C. Seal; the other two by R. W. Rice. After charging the violation the complainants request that the defendants be cited to show why their respective licenses should not be revoked and their bonds forfeited.

It is likely that other complaints will follow the foregoing. Those already filed will be taken up in due time by the supe visors.

THE PERJURY CASES.

S. S. Culver and E. J. Boland Were Arraigned Yesterday.

The cases of S. S. Culver and E. J. Boland, who were indicted for perjury by the late grand jury, committed in the Heath case, appeared before Judge Webb in department three of the superior court yesterday for arraignment. Culver, through his attorney G. C. Freman, made a motion that the court set aside the indictment for the following reasons:

That all the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury in his case were not inserted at the foot of the indictment, nor were they indorsed thereon, all of which is contrary to law; that a person was permitted to be present during the session that the indictment was found in, who was prohibited by law from being there. This has reference to the shorthand reporter, who took the testimony of the witnesses who appeared before the body. It was also asserted that the jury was not drawn according to law.

Another ground was that the grand jurors were incompetent to act as such from the fact that there existed a state of mind on the part of each of them which prevented them from acting impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the defendant; also that evidence other than that received from sworn witnesses and legal documents was furnished and accepted as evidence, and they did not exclude hearsay or secondary evidence.

Boland's attorney, W. D. Grady, filed demurrer to the indictment and the defendant pleaded not guilty. He set forth that the indictment does not state facts sufficient to constitute a public offense, and that the indictment does not show that the testimony alleged to have been false was material to the issue then on trial.

Boland's trial has not yet been set, and Culver's motion to set aside the indictment will be argued next Monday.

SHAMELESS MEN

Try to Force a Girl to Enter a Disreputable House.

About 12 o'clock Sunday night a young man named Wristen, accompanied by a girl, drove up to Mollie Livingston's resort in Chinatown. Wristen got out and tried to induce the girl to go into the house with him, but she refused. Wristen then went into the house and asked for accommodation for himself and the girl, but the inmates refused to receive the girl.

Wristen went out to his companion and again coaxed her to enter the place, and a friend of Wristen's who came up at this juncture sided the latter with his eloquence. The girl cried bitterly and protested she would not enter the house. Wristen then went in alone while his friend drove away with the girl.

In the meantime Miss Livingston, who had advised Wristen to take the girl home, had sent for the police. Hi Rapelje and Officer Russell were found after a while and came to the house. Later Wristen's friend drove up with the girl and the officers confronted the pair. They asked the girl how old she was and she answered she was 19. She had evidently been drinking and had become maudlin.

Though she looked younger the officers, in view of her statement, did not feel authorized to arrest her and her companions. They did, however, sternly order Wristen to take the girl home and the young men set off with her in the direction of Oleander. Wristen lives a few miles from Oleander on his parents' place. The girl lives on a ranch between Fowler and Oleander.

Wristen told some of the inmates at Livingston's that the girl had been out with him all Saturday night. After being refused admittance to the Livingston house the first time the girl and Wristen's friend visited a saloon on this side of the track. It is also believed that the house of Spanish Ruby was visited before they returned to Livingston's, but whether they were shut out there or not is not known.

CHARGED WITH GAMBLING.

Three Men Arrested on Complaint of John Barker.

The police say there is no gambling in the city of Fresno, at least that is their tacit admission, for they have made no arrests of persons on the charge of gaming. John A. Barker, ex-city marshal, who is now earning glory and shekels by bouncing highbinders who try to beat their way into the Chinese theater, says there is gambling.

Last Sunday Mr. Barker filed two complaints in Justice Crichton's court. One charges William Degen with permitting gambling in his saloon. The other is against Pat Foley and Tom Mitchell and charges them with carrying on a studhorse poker game, which is "a banking and percentage game played with cards and checks for money, etc." Degen, Foley and Mitchell were arrested and allowed to go on their own recognizance. Their trial was set for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

From all accounts Barker and a Madera friend went to the Acme saloon Saturday night and indulged in a game of cards. Barker won four or five dollars, while his friend lost. It is said that it was his friend's misfortune that cause Mr. Barker to file the complaints, while others assert he got angry because Degen's barkeeper refused to let him have any more drinks.

Barker is reticent. He says he has a good case, and will prosecute it himself if necessary. Being an ex-officer he flatters himself he knows all the ropes. He is not very well satisfied with the attitude of the district attorney's office, and intimated that they do not share his enthusiasm.

Now, let the police stand on their dignity and say that Mr. Barker is mistaken when he says gambling is going on under their very noses.

BURGLARS AT WORK.

Four Attempts Made Early Sunday Morning.

Sunday morning must have had some special attraction for the dark lantern fraternity. Four attempts were made to enter private residences, only two, however, were successful.

Dr. G. A. Hare's residence on the corner of K and Stanislaus streets was entered early in the morning. Footprints in the yard seem to show that there was only one burglar. After getting inside he opened all the doors and windows, so as to make retreat possible. The burglar had every thing his own way till he entered the room of one of the ladies of the house. She immediately gave the alarm by means of a sound pair of lungs, arousing the household.

The only thing missed from the house was a gold watch and chain valued at $65 belonging to one of the nurses.

The same morning burglars entered the residence of F. M. Romain at 1655 L street. Burglars also attempted to enter the residences of W. H. McKenzie and T. J. Kirk, but were scared away.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

To Captain G. A. Graham by Wawona Division No. 1, U. R., K. of P.

Whereas, In the wise discretion of an all-knowing Providence, he has removed from our midst our honored, respected and beloved comrade and brother, Sir Knight Captain George A. Graham; be it

Resolved, That to his bereaved friends we extend our heartfelt sympathy, as we mourn with them, in this, their hour of sadness. And be it finally

Shrubs For Shady Places.

The fragrant bush honeysuckle does finely in such a place. The flowering raspberry grows in the greatest abundance wild in hollow and moderately damp places in woods. Snowberry and red Indian currant bushes do nicely in shady places; so do common privets. Most all kinds of trailing honeysuckles thrive in the shade so far as growing well is concerned; so do trailing roses like Wichuraiana nitida and lucida grow in the shade. In dry, somewhat shady ravines barberry bushes, sweet fern and wax myrtle are at home, and in the better ground mahonia shrub, yellow root and evergreen euonymus should thrive. Then there are mountain laurel, wild rhododendrons, blueberry and upland huckleberry bushes, maple leaved viburnum and lots of others.

Even the queen felt herself obliged to yield to the storm of protests aroused by limiting the attendance at the annual drawing rooms. Instead, however, of admitting the usual crush at each occasion, she decided to give a special reception in the latter part of May, to which 200 who were unable to obtain places on the first lists will be admitted. THE RATIONAL DRESS CLUB.

Women of Denver Who Propose to Wear Comfortable Attire—Their Pledge.

The male population of Denver is just now in a state of daily expectation of an event which is to revolutionize society, in appearance at least.

For some time the men have had a suspicion that the women had concealed somewhere about them that unknown quantity, a divided skirt, in spite of the fact that their skirts still flow about them as gracefully and innocently as though dress reform had never been heard of. But their suspicions have a pretty firm foundation. A rational dress club is only awaiting a few last converts to complete its roll of 100 members to make its appearance before the wondering public. They don't intend to troop out in a squad like some new fangled army, but they will put on their new reform clothes, and if their courage holds out go about the duties of life as though nothing had happened.

The models for these reform clothes are furnished by Mrs. B. O. Flower, the wife of the editor of The Arena, and Laura Lee of Philadelphia. The costume consists of bloomers and a blouse. But Denver does not intend to be a mere copyist in point of style, so she has modified the two designs given her by the east, and her leaders of society will appear in a garb peculiar to themselves. The skirts are to be very full and gathered just above the ankle, so that the folds will fall within five or six inches of the ground, and they are said to follow the movements of the legs so gracefully that it is difficult to see much difference from the conventional skirt.

It is to the enterprise of the Chicago Tribune that the early knowledge of the reform is due. It has done its work of investigation thoroughly, too, as it even gives us the form of the pledge which must be signed by those who wish to be among the hundred. One result of this movement will be to reduce the long reigning Four Hundred of the city of Denver to the One Hundred.

The pledge is as follows:

Believing that the health, grace and comfort of women will be increased by the adoption of a more rational dress for business (including housekeeping) purposes, I, the undersigned, in consideration of ninety-nine (99) other women of the city of Denver severally pledging and binding themselves by an agreement similar to this, do hereby pledge and bind myself and agree:

First—To provide myself with a costume as follows: A rational dress skirt, a comfortable fitting blouse or waist, using no whalebone or stiffening of any kind whatever (whether in the form of a corset, under waist or dress waist); shoes with common sense heels.

Second—To wear the same publicly in the city of Denver, commencing at such time after one hundred (100) women shall have signed this document, as may be determined by the Colorado Rational Dress club.

Third—To continue to wear the same as a working, business or street costume for the period of at least three months after said date.

Fourth—To use my influence to induce others to join the Colorado Rational Dress club.

Mrs. J. A. Kilton, wife of a member of the legislature, is president of the club, and Miss Clara Irwin is its secretary. Mrs. C. W. Varnum, wife of a prominent attorney; Dr. Mary E. Bates, Mrs. Helen T. Bates, Mrs. C. W. Betts, Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Harrington have already enlisted. Other names are kept secret to add to the surprise in store for the public.

Mrs. Kilton says, "There will not be the least bit of immodesty about the dress," and she thinks there is no reason why it cannot be made very attractive. In her opinion it is all nonsense for women to say they cannot help looking slouchy without corsets. She says: "They will simply have to learn to stand up and walk gracefully. Think of the comfort and ease and cleanliness! I am willing to grant that the sight will be a little peculiar at first, but when the first impression of strangeness wears off our genial critics, the men, will say, 'Well done, and God bless you!'" Mrs. Kilton intends to have every one of her dresses—house, street and evening—made after the new pattern. Miss Irwin and others will follow her example.

When the number of signatures required is complete, the idea is to have a reception, so as to get a little accustomed to the new found freedom from petticoats before venturing on the streets. There seems to be little doubt among the women but the Rational Dress club will be a great success.—New York Sun.

They Do and They Don't.

Among the women writers the question of woman suffrage arouses contradictory opinions. Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Julia C. R. Dorr, Sarah Orne Jewett, Olive Thorne Miller and Jennie June Croly are all willing and resolved to vote if the right is accorded to them. Marion Harland does not want the right of suffrage and would not vote if she could; Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth would not vote, but is willing to let others if they may, and Ella Wheeler Wilcox would be too busy to vote. This division applies only to the contributors to a recent symposium on the subject in a Chicago paper.

Nellie Grant Sartoris.

It was a very agreeable surprise to the many friends of Nellie Grant Sartoris to learn that she is about to abandon England and her husband's relatives and take up her abode in Washington, where, as her father's daughter and from her own charming personality, she will always be a central figure. Still more pleasant is it to know that she is well supplied with this world's goods, derived partly from her late husband's estate and partly from her mother.—New York Recorder.

Shoes of Lace.

Shoes are now made of lace—the thick guipure description. They are very dainty and yet strong. Good leather shoes and boots are to be had ventilated in such a manner as not to expose the foot to wet or damp. This is an excellent move, as thick leather is apt to heat the foot unduly, causing great discomfort to the wearer.—Philadelphia Record.

Mrs. Burke-Roche's Jewels.

When in the ballroom or at the opera Mrs. Burke-Roche's attire is often conspicuous for its absence of jewels. She, however, is fond of gold, silver and precious stones, and upon a recent Sunday, with her rather simple church costume, she wore a crescent of pearls at her throat, a sapphire and diamond studded chatelaine watch. Her back hair was confined by two combs of tortoise shell and pearls. Her veil was held together by an opal and diamond stickpin, and she wore five rings (the lady removed her gloves almost as soon as seated, perhaps because she had to assist her children off with their coats). The rings were a diamond circlet, a mammoth solitaire pearl, a sapphire with pearls, a pearl with diamonds, and a diamond "pinky" ring.—New York Correspondent.

Second Sight.

Jamson—Do you believe in second sight?

Hardup (sadly)—I'm sorry to say that I do. I picked up a coin the other day and thought it was a half sovereign, but at second sight I found it was a new farthing!—London Million.

Well Paid Teaching.

There is a boarding school up in Fifth avenue, near the park, where the girls are taught to be elegant as they are taught cube root or rhetoric. One special teacher, who received $15 an hour for her refined influence, dresses beautifully, comes in a coupe and pays a formal visit. She leads the conversation, discussing all the current topics of interest to polite people and frowning down mistakes and bad taste. Everything she says and does, every gesture and everything she wears is said or done or worn to teach "distinguished manners." When she goes home, she writes letters to the girls and the teachers containing compliments and criticisms, respectively. During the school year each girl is this elegant lady's guest at breakfast, dinner or the theater.—New York World.

Combination of Blue and Red.

There is a tendency to return to the combination of red and blue in gowns both for home and street. These two colors are natural complements, and they go well toward making a cheap gown look handsome. I noticed recently a dark blue serge made for a young lady. The skirt was plain in form, with five gores handsomely braided with wide black soutache. The front breadth was left open on each side to admit of a narrow panel of cherry satin. The waist opened over a vest of the same, and there was a sprung flounce to the waist lined with the satin. At the neck there was a wide jabot of the satin, which spread nearly to the points of the revers. The high collar was also red.—Home Queen.

Why She Wants to Vote.

Mrs. S. L. Baldwin addressed a congregation in the First Place Methodist Episcopal church, Brooklyn, recently on the woman suffrage question. Mrs. Baldwin, who was for many years a missionary in China, is an ardent advocate of the ballot for women. Among other things she said: "I want the ballot because I detest class legislation. Our legislation today is of that variety, pure and simple. Do you know, ladies, that in all but five of our states a mother has not as much right to her own child as has a hen to its chickens or a cow to her calf? Should not a mother have a claim on her own child? Then do you blame me for asking for woman suffrage?"—Brooklyn Eagle.

Favors a Woman.

The Chicago Inter Ocean supports the demand of the Equal Suffrage association of Illinois that a woman be nominated to the office of trustee of the state university of Illinois. It adds: "It is needless to repeat the argument that a woman educated in American schools and in an American home is at least as fit a person to be intrusted with the ballot as a man of alien birth who has not learned to read the American language or how to speak it correctly at the time of his naturalization. It is more important to call attention to the fact that the Equal Suffrage association has come into the campaign early and promises to stay until the end."

A Pertinent Question.

At the recent closing exercises of the woman's law class at the University of the City of New York, Chancellor McCracken bestowed certificates upon 20 women. One of the graduates—Mrs. Scudamore—spoke on "The Married Woman." In the course of her essay she asked a pertinent question, "If distinct titles like Miss and Mrs. are used to distinguish single and married women, why are not such distinctions equally necessary for bachelors and married men?"

The Twenty-third.

The Ohio house of representatives on April 24 passed the senate bill extending school suffrage to women. Ohio thus falls into line, making the twenty-third state in which women can vote for school officers. Which state will be the next to join the procession?
